Case No. 13-cr-20772
HON. GERSHWIN A. DRAIN

RASMIEH ODEH,

Defendant.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER REGARDING PUBLIC CONDUCT

It has come to the attention of the Court that leaflets prepared by Defendant's supporters were passed out to individuals entering the courthouse prior to the hearing on October 28, 2014. Of course, contact with the jurors or prospective jurors is strictly prohibited. See Dkt. No. 110. Moreover, this Court has explicitly stated that no one shall "attempt in any way to influence or intimidate any juror or prospective juror through any means, including . . . carrying any clothing, buttons or other items in the Courthouse that may be clearly visible to the jury that carry any message or symbol addressing the issues related to this case." Id. at 2. As such, passing out literature of the type passed out on October 28, 2014 to individuals entering the courthouse is STRICTLY PROHIBITED on November 4, 2014, since Defendant's supporters have no means of knowing whether an individual entering the courthouse on that day is a prospective juror for the trial in this matter.

SO ORDERED.

I SUPPORT RASMEA

أنا أَدْعِم رَسْمِيَّة

Rasmea is a community icon who recently completed a Master's degree in Criminal Justice from Governors State University. She overcame vicious torture by Israeli authorities while imprisoned in Palestine in the 70s, and is a proud reminder of the millions of Palestinians who have not given up organizing for their rights of liberation, equality, and return.
